$100,000 MATCHING CHALLENGE
THIS YEAR YOUR SUPPORT GOES EVEN FARTHER!

Dear ,

Music has returned to Breckenridge, and this summer is sure to delight and inspire! Your love of live music enabled us to restore a sense of belonging and pride in 2021 through the meaningful programming we brought directly to our communities. Because of your generosity, we offered more than 50 free events that combined music and art last year. I am grateful and excited to share that there is even more in store for 2022.

BreckCreate supports and serves artists, musicians, creatives, cultural enthusiasts, visitors and the community through a unique private/public partnership with the Town of Breckenridge. Philanthropy—your meaningful annual contribution—brings all of our programs to life.

Friends, I am thrilled to announce that Breckenridge Festival of International Arts (BIFA) and the Breckenridge Music Festival are joining forces to create the most dynamic festival the area has ever seen. In 2022, Breckenridge Music Festival is emerging as BIFA's Revolution Music Series. Many of our long-time musicians will be back in Breckenridge to perform under the artistic direction of Steven Schick.

In 2021, we saw a lively and diverse audience turn out for the free concerts, and we want to continue this success by offering Revolution Music Series for FREE again in 2022. A group of donors have offered a $100,000 challenge to the community to make this possible. They will match your support dollar-for-dollar. Can we count on your support now to help us meet this challenge?

With your support, BreckCreate offers world-class programming to enliven the Town's cultural venues and public spaces, which are unparalleled in quality, diversity and accessibility for a community our size. With an emphasis on authenticity, culture and singularity of place, you help BreckCreate provide a slate of performances, classes and special events designed to build community and inspire creativity in Breckenridge and Summit County.

For your support, commitment, love and joy, we thank you. I cannot wait to see you out and about this summer in Breckenridge. With the $100,000 challenge, this year your support goes even farther. Help us meet the challenge, and we will deliver the most triumphant season yet!

Sincerely,

Tamara Nuzzaci Park President & CEO
