

Established Arts Programming ~ Returning & Growing

Showcased 2,000 musicians in 420 Colorado bands on 35 stages in the Creative District, celebrated 15 years!

The Carnegie Center for Creativity is undergoing a huge historic restoration to allow for more accessibility, creating a State of the Art multi arts facility - a $2.4 million project!

Launched MoA for All, raised $200,000+ for the museum, attended by thousands & engaged 250 community artists!

Fresh Arts & Cultural Efforts are Sprouting Up!

What's Next?

- Robust promotional video campaign with Visit Fort Collins and their new brand rollouts
- Collaborative Creative Business After Hours with Larimer Small Business Development Center
- Enhance Spaces, audition and markets resources for artists

Creative Business After Hours: Advocacy, Agency, and Anti-Oppression in the Arts

Thursdays, June 8, 2023

In Person - 5:15pm to 7:45pm -

Virtual - 6:00pm to 7:00pm

Co-Sponsor(s): Presented by: Full Expression!, Larimer SBDC, The Downtown Fort Collins Creative
District and the Fort Collins Museum of Discovery

Mentorship

NoCo Creative Districts Group

Music District Membership

Larimer SBDC Creative Business After Hours and Consulting

Music Industry Night

Fort Collins Mural Project Workshops

That's a Wrap!

Peggy Lyle

Director Downtown Fort Collins Creative District

info@dfccd.org

970-691-3005

Maya Jairam

Actor, Owner of Equity Works, Creative District Committee

equityworksco@gmail.com

Watch videos & explore our websites:

<https://www.fococreatedistrict.com/>

<https://nococreativeroadtrip.com/>

<https://youtu.be/lk8fZkQ6mFU>