

THE COMMONS
AT SPACE TO CREATE TRINIDAD

Goodnight Moon –

- A life-sized fiber diorama, inspired by Author Margaret Wise Brown. This beloved children's story has been brought to life in three dimensions. This 480 sqft exhibit was created with 152 miles of yarn and nearly six (6) million stitches. During the Month of May we hosted over 670 children to this wonderful exhibit .
-

For more info or to support our efforts, visit trinidadcreativedistrict.org

2023 SCHEDULE & FEATURED SPEAKERS

- 8-Apr KATE KINGSTON
- 11-May PW COVINGTON
- 10-Jun MICHELE BAPTISTE
- 8-Jul SANDRA SAJBEL
- 12-Aug DAVID A. MARTIN
- 9-Sept HILARY DePOLO
- 14-Oct KIM KRISCO

THE COMMONS @SPACEToCREATE
218 W. MAIN STREET, TRINIDAD, CO

Colorado
Creative Industries

Smithsonian Institution
Museum on Main Street

A Museum on Main Street exhibition organized by the Smithsonian Institution.

Brought to you by your state humanities council.
Funded by the U.S. Congress.

- Trinidad 1/10 rural communities to be chosen we will add 3 conversation to the exhibit
- 1 oral histories
- 2 movie
- 3 Lecture on disadvantage communities members

Developing the Commons @ Space to Create, into thee
Community Center
for Arts & Culture

Mentorship

- Creative District has 2 students on our board
- We feel mentored by the Staff at CCI

Marggie R. Ferrendelli –

Director :

marggie.Ferrendelli@trinidad.co.gov

719-846-9843 ext. 127

Markie Davis –

Secretary: markie.davis@gmail

719-846-2283

Facebook.com/trinidadcreativedistrict

Facebook.com/thecommonstrinidad

www.TrinidadCreativeDistrict.org

